ARRANGING DETAILS OF THE CHERRY FAIR

Committees Rest Last Night and Settled Preliminary Arrangements

The chairmen of the various committees appointed by Benjamin Brick to arrange for the annual Cherry fair met at the Commercial club last evening and discussed plans and submitted budgets. Mr. Compton, chairman of the committee on street sports thought he could get along with $50 while Mr. Gahlsdorf of the parade committee placed his lowest figure at $55. Mr. Reynolds of the cherry display committee thought $145 was his lowest and Mrs. Daney for the baby parade, considering the importance of this parade, thought she should have at least $80, and also remarked that the mothers thought real money as prizes were more to be prized than loving cups.

The Salem Floral association figured that $100 would be low enough to spend in prizes and decorating the armory. Rev. James Elvin of the queen contest had a most encouraging report, in which he stated that there was likely to be a genuine race for the honor of naming the queen, and that already there was considerable money in the treasury.

The plans for the fair include the crowning of the queen Monday morning to be followed by the baby parade and the viewing of the floral and cherry exhibits at the armory. The afternoon of Monday will be given to the parade from representatives of all the granges in the county, and the merchants' and manufacturers' parade. Street sports will follow. The women of North Salem will put on a pageant at Wilson park. The day will close with the ball at the armory.

Plans for Tuesday morning include the automobile parade, military and civic parade and all fraternal organizations. This will be followed by patriotic speaking from the reviewing stand. The afternoon of July Fourth and the evening will be given to the celebration at the fair grounds.

Theodore Hagman is Found Dead in His Room

Theodore Hagman of Astoria was found dead in his room at the Glen hotel on Commercial street last night about 10 o'clock. His death was due to a hemorrhage of the lungs. He came to Salem several days ago and applied for admission to the Oregon State Tuberculosis hospital and as this institution is now crowded his application was denied. Later he asked for permission to live in a tent on the grounds in order to receive treatment. A letter was found in his pocket giving a member of the Moose lodge at Astoria. A communication was sent to the Moose secretary, William L. A. Pole, and instructions were received asking that the body be sent by Webb and Clough to Astoria for burial.

A Korean restaurant will be established in Salem, at 110 1-2 north Commercial street, up stairs. Harry Lee is the proprietor.

Loju now tie for league leadership Cole pitched superbly and had great support. Baby Beavers are coming strong but Salem has a hard bunch to beat. League grounds, Sunday 3 p. m. June 3

The O. A. C. alumni will hold its annual reunion tomorrow at Corvallis. Percy Clapper of this city is president of the association. Quite a number from the city are making arrangements to attend.

The Republican county central committee will meet at 1:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the court house for the selection of officers. The call is for the new committee elected at the primary May 19.

A carload of oak lumber for floor finishing was received yesterday by the Spaulding Logging company from Little Rock, Arkansas. Oak lumber comes pretty high as a ship shipment is valued at $1500, with an additional $400 freight charges.

Willie Ritchie, former light weight champion and a welterweight, Ralph Gruman, are billed to put on a good fight at the Lee Hippodrome next Tuesday evening. Tickets are of grand opera value, as the announcements state they are valued at from $1.00 to $5.00, according to location.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to thank our neighbors and friends for their kind help and sympathy in the last sickness and death of our husband and father, and for the beautiful flowers.
—A. C. J. Smith and Walter E. Smith.

The children's story hour Saturday morning will be discontinued until November, but this does not prevent them from coming to the library Saturday mornings, according to the school librarian, Miss Flora M. Case, who will be found at the library on Saturday to help the children in picking out their summer reading.

County Clerk Max Gehlhar, Ernest Blue, Walter Gerth, James G. Helzel and W. F. Bittke left this city this morning at 4 a. m. and returned at 7 o'clock with 30 fine bass which they captured near Lincoln. The bass were particularly hungry this morning and most of them were caught in about 30 minutes. Some of the samples exhibited in town this morning weighed four pounds.

Royal Neighbors and Modern Woodmen attention. All members are requested to report at our hall at 1 p. m. Sunday, June 4, to take part in memorial exercises appropriate for the day. This will be our annual memorial day. Do your duty and come and bring a few flowers if possible. The Cherryband band will furnish music. Important. Be there and bring your friends.—By order of committee, J. B.

A farm valued at $18,000 has just been sold to E. Hartley and Craig Brothers, on Howell Prairie, consisting of 275 acres. The grantor was John Starren, and the transfer was handled by W. H. Grubenhart & Co. The new owners intend to spend several thousand dollars in improving the property, 100 of which is now in cultivation. Forty acres of the farm is beaver dam land. Mr. Starren will make his home at Mt. Angel.

George C. L. Snyder announces that the shipment of rifles for the Salem Rifle club has been delayed on account of the great demand for rifles throughout the country. It seems that Salem is not the only city that is feeling the patriotic impulse. In fact, the movement is active in every state in the union and just at present the arsenals are a few weeks behind. But they are coming, is the assurance of Mr. Snyder.

Word was received today from Lieutenant Leo Walton of the regular army about 350 miles down in Mexico, that for the first time since arriving in that working country, they have and real ice water. As the Mexican government refused permission to use the railroad, all shipments must go to the troops by automobile, and for this reason ice has been unheard of during the six weeks the troops have been suffering in that torrid climate.

Thursday, June 16 has been officially set aside for the annual home coming of the Salem Elks. At the session of the lodge last evening plans were made and committees appointed to begin at once and send notice to all Salem Elks in Oregon and elsewhere and tell them that the biggest show on earth is about to be pulled off for all brothers in good standing, and that a committee consisting of E. Cooke, Patton, T. G. Bligh, assisted by S. M. Endicott, Harry Wendroth, A. L. Wallace and Fred S. Hyman, positively guarantee 100 laughs in 100 minutes. A banquet that really is a banquet will be served at the armory to be followed by moving picture cartoons of prominent Elks portraying them in their every-day movements. And besides these attractions, Mr. Bligh will scour the northwest in securing the kind of an entertainment that an Elk can appreciate. It is intended to be a great home coming.
